SAGITTARIUS

The next two months will enable you to reconsider many of your activities, and to decide how best to proceed in the future and moving into 2020.

Venus in your sign for most of November will encourage you to be more adventurous, even if some of your insecurities arise early in the month.

You will gain the opportunity to turn a corner in your personal life by the end of November.

ARIES

You may feel driven to enjoy life now as the sun in Scorpio under November 22 will fire up your passions.

A fresh financial or personal development may signal a fresh phase.

And yet, there is a strong draw to the past at this time too. Negotiations and travel will gain pace after November 20.

TAURUS

Relationships may be fiery over the next two months, so be prepared to find peace — unless, that is, you thrive on drama and passion!

The Taurus full moon on November 12 and the new moon on November 27 signify the chance to turn a corner in your personal and work life.

GEMINI

You'll enjoy the sense that some aspects of your home and personal life regain an even keel. Romance could also blossom and a development may be unexpected or by chance.

Your sign's ruler Mercury will be retrograde until November 19, so don't be surprised if life seems slower until then.

CANCER

An unexpected or out-of-the-ordinary development that spans your home life and direction may arise at the end of November.

Once Jupiter, the planet of abundance and expansion, enters Capricorn early in December, you will begin a prolific cycle work-wise.

Pursuing better health may take much of your focus in December.

LEO

Consider your values and the importance of being fulfilled, and you'll find activities will flourish as you organise more time for your priorities. It's important over the next two months to base key decisions on facts.

You will have the time in November to reconsider your circumstances, so avoid feeling pressured to make decisions.

VIRGO

November is ideal to find ways to create a solid base and structure such as a stable financial budget and personal happiness. You may even be surprised by collaborations and news that come out of the blue.

Avoid over-committing financially early in November.

LIBRA

Mars in your sign until mid-November will boost your energy levels and self-confidence. A return to an old haunt and a reunion will appeal.

You'll feel increasingly passionate about your projects mid-November onwards, and will enjoy a sociable and romantic Christmas pre-season.

SCORPIO

A fresh work contract could arise, so take the initiative.

Enjoy relaxing; good results will arise in good time.

The full moon on November 12 will spotlight your lust for life.

CAPRICORN

You are on the threshold of breaking into new territory.

Once Jupiter enters your sign on December 3, you will begin one of the most abundant cycles of your life; be prepared!

AQUARIUS

You are entering a profitable cycle, so seize the day! A fresh approach to your status and direction may involve unexpected developments that encourage you to reach for your dreams.

Consider making fitness and health a major part of your daily schedule.

PISCES

This is a good time to focus on your favourite activities and long-term plans as you may feel increasingly encouraged to nurture your projects.

A trip or a project that broadens your mind will open doors.

Be prepared to follow your intuition, as it will guide you.
